“ Joyce & Clemy, I just heard about your Mom's passing today. I talked with Bobbie. Hate I did not know it sooner. I can still remember your Mom teaching me in Elementary School at Ebenezer and us being neighbors. You all sure did have her with you for a long time. She lived a long, good life. I know you will miss her dearly. In my thoughts and prayers. Nancy Orr Hudgens

“ Mrs. Conway was my teacher at Keowee Elementary in the 2nd, 5th, and 6th grades. I look back and remember her as one of the best teachers I can recall having and have always thought very highly of her and the family as well. My sincere condolences go out to you all as she will be greatly missed.

Mrs. Conway was a truly lovely and loving lady. Joyce and family, I'm sorry to learn of her passing. Another pillar of the community has gone to Heaven. I'll always remember her kindness shown to me when we were in college; I'll also remember her "no foolishness" attitude that she use to remind us of quite frequently. Oh, what fun she was. I loved her.
